The convention was authorized to fill its own chairman and was not restricted to its own members.

The nomination of Governor was the nomination. Governor and all of ers were cheered. When Arapahoe was called the chairman asked for a few minutes recess. Two minutes was granted and when the time was up two more were asked for and granted. The leaders of the party were seen consulting around Mr Pat

Hamm and it began to be whispered around the house. They are going up stairs.

When time was called for the second time Governor Adams walked half way down the aisle and began addressing the chair. No one in the house, outside, perhaps, of a few of the Arapahoe delegation had the remotest idea who he was going to nominate, and when he spoke the name of Hon T M Patterson, he got no further. If a bombshell had exploded in the midst of the convention

a more astounding effect could have been created. The entire house, from Colorado to Ardeleo, rose to its feet with a yell. Long Hats bonnets, handkerchiefs and canes were thrown high in the air. Applause followed applause and cheer on cheer after cheer for Patterson and Arapahoe county. Governor Adams was forced to stand on a chair and bow his acknowledgements for the ovation. Two minutes more and the applause died away when Governor Adams continued his speech placing in nomination Hon T M Patterson of Arapahoe county. Then the scene was repeated. Hats,

T. W. Brunswick, Signal Corps.

Mr. S. E. Dowe, of the Western News paper union, was in the city yesterday.

The Barker [illegible] Manitou, will probably close for the season next Saturday.

Seats for "Soap Bubble" will be placed on sale at the Midland ticket office this morning.

A people's handsome cottages will be erected at Camp Harding, in Clay Cañon this winter.

There will be a meeting of the Mat Pearce Hose company tonight. All members are requested to be present.

Miss Minnie Wood, who has been a guest at the residence of Dr. Tucker for some time, left for Denver yesterday.

There are undelivered telegrams at the Western Union office for Mrs. R. E. Montgomery, John Day and Hon. C. O. Parsons.

One of the oldest firm dealing establishments in Denver, it is claimed, will remove to this city and open up on North Tejon street.

A. P. Barnick, the reader, will return to this city and give an entertainment under the auspices of the G. A. R. the latter part of the month.

The railroads seemed to be a little out of tune yesterday. Every regular train but one due in this city was from twenty minutes to two hours late.

Postmaster J. W. Green, of Manitou passed through the city yesterday en route to Denver to look in on the sessions of the democratic convention.

A train of California excursionists passed through the city yesterday afternoon over the Denver and Rio Grande railroad, bound for eastern points.

The GAZETTE was in error yesterday morning in stating that Mr. Will Low was expected to return to Leadville. He went there again going into business in this city.

Mr. James Duncan the Huerfano street music dealer and one of the old time residents of Colorado Springs, left for an extended visit at his old home in Pittsburg, Pa., yesterday.

The game of ball between the Colorado Springs club and the Leadville Blues to-morrow will be very interesting and no doubt will be largely attended. The Blues are said to play a good game.

Company A gave an exhibition drill last night at the corner of Tejon and Pikes Peak avenue, in honor of the anniversary of the company's return from the Ute war in Garfield county. Many were the compliments [illegible] the excellent work of the boys by the crowd which witnessed their exhibition.

"A Tin Soldier" opened their engagement in Denver Monday evening to a packed house. The company is stronger and better than last season. The popular [illegible] Eugene Canfield, is still with them and takes the part of "Rats." He is supported by Miss Kate Davis, Isabelle Cox and a strong company of comedians. They are on their way to California and will appear in our opera house next Monday evening.

"Soap Bubble," the new comedy that will be seen at the opera house Friday and Saturday nights the Kansas City Times has the following. "Soap Bubble" is one of the most taking musical creations of the day. It is well supplied with popular [illegible] and when the humor lags horse play steps in to keep the ball a-rolling. Last night's performance was attended by a good sized and appreciative audience. Mr. Farron was as mirth-provoking as ever, possibly more so, all his songs were never better received. Miss Dolly Foster is as piquant as a pinch of snuff, and [illegible] song is one of the most powerful her vivacity and mimetic powers make [illegible] For my money on the vocal line Stu shared the honors with Farron. Ed J. Connelly is a creditable substitute for Baker, and Miss Rose is quite tuneful. The cast generally was up to requirements, and the audience felt quite sore when the curtain fell."

Tomorrow evening Mr. Preston K. Dodge, [illegible] Sunday School of Quincy, assisted by Miss Ina V. Towne, a graduate of that institution, will give a reading at the First Methodist church. Mr. Dillenback is one of the most accomplished elocutionists in the country. Miss Townsend has also made an enviable record as a reader. Her specialty is "The Chariot Race" from Ben Hur. Of this piece the Denver News of a recent date has the following: "During Miss Townsend's reading of 'The Chariot Race,' from Ben Hur, the attention of the audience was riveted [illegible] Her gesture and [illegible] held [illegible] the entire recitation. When she had concluded she was greeted [illegible] and was compelled to reappear and bow her acknowledgements. The programme will be as follows." [illegible]

The republican state committee should invite Governor Pattison to deliver some of his Maine speeches. We want to increase our republican majority as much as Maine did.

Cleveland did not discuss civil service reform in his last letter. But he did discuss the subject fully in his letter of four years ago. At that time it was the only and not a condition that confronted the country and he found it much easier to discuss it. His views then were as follows:

"The appointing powers of the public service [illegible] and they are entitled to the fair and honest work which the laws require of every officer. [illegible] duty of those entrusted with the making of their affairs to see that such public service is forthcoming. The selection and retention of [illegible] in consideration of their fitness and ability to perform the duties of the office, and should depend on their [illegible] and the value of their work, and they should not be removed for political reasons or to reward mere party services.
